

SET THE CHILDREN FREE .. (A Dedication Song).

(To all the Falun Dafa children in China)

Let us hear your voices now in the light of Zhen, Shan, Ren.
Sound these words through every heart, let Dafa's children sing again...

Forcing their hearts by demand, innocence betrayed and millions more.
For the future of your ancient land and the precious lives of one and all.

Clouding their horizons cold, such darkness upon this righteous way.
Far and wide Dafa's story unfolds shining in the light of day.

Let us find our voices now in the song of Zhen, Shan, Ren.
Sound these words through every heart,
set Dafa's children free again!

LOTUS FLOWER ..

(Dedicated to all the Falun Dafa practitioners in China).

Many a lotus emerging from depth of clouded waters unfolding into flower...

Hearts embracing dawns anew, splendour now amidst prevailing light.

Above torrents and trials the light of "Truthfulness, Compassion, Forbearance" will forever shine!

REFLECTIONS UPON CULTIVATION ..

Cultivation, a call to heart... Curtailed perhaps of comfort, yet not one treasureless moment while ascending.

Towards skies more than any light of sun, cloudless and havened blue.
Fa-rectification, more than mere illumination.

To hasten our voyage, relinquishing all that would render heart
and mind anchored,
bound to the 'everyday.'

Where every pure heart finds form, every gesture of Zhen, Shan, Ren speaks volumes upon the journey through cultivation.

Bodhisattva, distant from sounds ever strident...
Beyond all that diminishes blossoming of lotus and lustre.

Buddha, bearer of luminosity, the boundless made flesh and finite...
One brief sojourn into this realm of shadows.

By night, pondering the unfoldment of the cosmos...
Dawn, then to forge my path, awakening further upon Zhen, Shan, Ren.

Here, yet another threshold to pass... One pledge to Dafa and Teacher, ourselves and myriads of sentient beings.

Parting with attachments seizing the ways of Dafa.
Heart now deeper, diamond-like, days of brimming and overcoming...

Consummation, our own compendium of lives now drawn to a most majestic and sublime conclusion.

MEMORIES OF MOUNT TAI ..

A sojourn upon steep ascent, from cable carriage to an arduous climb (and descent) by foot... Following the way of many emperors before, 6,666 steps reaching summit above seas of cloud and clamour. Ancient temples awaiting first light, unfolding dawn beyond such bitter cold and moments of captured radiance.

Silence amidst wider skies shining again a path to cultivation. Closer somehow to my realm of origin, timelessness and I together upon a Chinese mountain.

Zhen, Shan, Ren finding my heart four years later...

UPON A TRIUMPHANT CHORUS ..

Worlds alight upon a triumphant chorus resounding Dafa's splendour to the corners of every cosmos... Stars to luminous shores rejoice, myriads of beings awaiting, destined by the fruits of one's final consummation.

Spanning life times amidst descent, maligned until the magnificence of Dafa's arrival. Here to fulfil our vows above the many veils of aeons, shining now beyond any maze and human mire. Zhen, Shan, Ren restoring, unfolding hearts alight upon a triumphant chorus.

CHINA'S HEART .. (Sanctuary)

Cultivation, forging shelter amidst the tempest, falls of rain pitched to an endless din... Never such dark-drenched skies, China's heart closed in, crimes against Dafa from every corner.

Horizons, some ominous grey, crowded cold until a wondrous light uncurtains the stage, a passage far more resplendent than purest diamond!

Emerging now, a sanctuary from inside, timeless, Zhen, Shan, Ren igniting China's heart again, climbing beyond cloud to realms where gods arise crowning to a culmination.

EVERY COSMOS ..

From the corners of every cosmos we come, destined to fulfil our vows. Forging realms of purest heart and mind, turning falun here in the temporal world...

For the salvation of all beings we come, offering a brightest future to all. Awakening to Dafa let spring resound, the way of Zhen, Shan, Ren.

As particles ascending millions and more, together illuminating one body immense. Determined we stand, resplendent now, unfolding the hour of our consummation.

... For the enlightening of every cosmos we come!

CHINA .. (Your Timeless Heart)

I have journeyed the summit of your lofty mountains, followed your ways and 'gates of law'. Calling you 'home' in ages passed, carried through lifetimes both longing to touch greater skies!

I hear your cries of anguish now from such dens of inhumanity.
Many turning their backs on tradition and virtue ,attempting to corrupt your timeless heart.

Raise your sails upon these troubled tides, beyond the reign of persecution. Through Dafa, unveiling to shine again, amidst the light of Zhen, Shan, Ren.

Cultivating Buddhas, Daos and Gods, the path of one hundred million and more. Blossoms of Spring emerge unlike any other, awakening thresholds towards brightest days.

Let Dafa echo your every song, a treasure precious, boundless to all. Come into your wisdom, your destiny awaits, dawning the hour of your timeless heart.
